

PSALM 107

Edward Bairstow

- 1 O give thanks unto the / Lord for • he is / gracious :
And his / mercy en/dureth for / ever.
- 2 Let them give thanks whom the / Lord hast re/deemed :
And delivered / from the / hand of the/ enemy;
- + 3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the / east and • from the / west :
from the / north and / from the / south.

- 4 They went astray in the wilderness / out of the / way :
and / found no / city to / dwell in;
- 5 Hungry / and / thirsty :
their / soul / fainted in / them.

6 So they cried unto the / Lord in their / trouble :
and he de/livered them from / their dis/tress.

7 He led them forth by the / right / way :
that they might go to the / city / where they / dwelt.

8 O that men would therefore praise the / Lord for his / goodness :
and declare the wonders that he / doeth · for the / children of / men!

9 For he satisfieth the / empty / soul :
and filleth the / hungry / soul with / goodness.

10 Such as sit in darkness, and in the / shadow of / death :
being fast / bound in / misery and / iron;

11 Because they rebelled against the / words of the / Lord :
and lightly regarded the / counsel · of the / most / Highest;

12 He also brought down their / heart through / heaviness :
they fell down and / there was / none to / help them.

13 So when they cried unto the / Lord in their / trouble :
he de/livered them · out of / their dis/tress.

14 For he brought them out of darkness, and out of the / shadow of / death :
and / brake their / bonds in / sunder.

15 O that men would therefore praise the / Lord for his / goodness :
and declare the wonders that he / doeth · for the / children of / men!

16 For he hath broken the / gates of / brass :
and smitten the / bars of / iron in / sunder.

Glory be to the Father, and / to the / Son: and / to the / Holy / Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now and / ever / shall be: world without / end. / A/men.
